The screenshot displays the MoviEncoder web interface. At the top, there is a navigation menu with icons for Encoder, Encodages (highlighted), Utilisateurs, Volumes, Profils, and Mon compte. Below the menu is a dashboard titled 'Tableau de bord' with four statistics cards: 'Encodages en cours' (7), 'Encodages en attentes' (12), 'Encodages terminés' (329), and 'Encodages échoués' (0). Below the dashboard is a table titled 'Liste des encodages' with columns for Date, Vidéo, Durée, Profil, Encodé par, Minutes d'encodage, and Supprimer. The table contains two rows of data.

SYNOPSIS CAST & CREW TECHNICAL & FURTHER INFO FESTIVALS

Short synopsis : Toni Musulin. Security guard. Porsche owner. Loner. Enigma. An ordinary man seeking revenge for humiliation at the hands of his bosses. A man with a slow-burning hatred of the system. And the man behind "the heist of the century".

Long synopsis : November 5th, 2009, 10:00: Toni Musulin gently presses the accelerator in his armored van. In the back are 11.6 million Euros. In just a few days, the anonymous security guard becomes a public figure. He is "the brains behind the heist of the century", thrust into a huge media frenzy centered on a robbery without violence that yielded unprecedented spoils. A man seeking revenge for humiliation at the hands of his boss and the system, Toni is deeply unpredictable - one day, an ordinary guy in grey sweats cycling around town, the next the proud owner of a red Ferrari he races in Monaco. As he says of himself, he's a first class gentleman stuck in a second class seat. He plans his sting like he plans his life - meticulously. It takes a year to leave his wife and break with his only friend. One year to perfect his solo attack, taking advantage of flaws in the system Toni knows inside out.
